

... How I feel affects other people!!!

DON'T YOU REALIZE THAT YOU DON'T KNOW ME?

How many times have I heard

"I knew you'd do that,"

"It figures you'd say that.?"

Please don't tell me you know me

Because you only insult my intelligence

Don't you realize you don't know me?

Have I so shallow a mind

That you can pick me apart at will

Are my actions really predictable

While looking through your drinking glass crystal ball

Is my conversation

really always monotone

Don't you realize you don't know ME?

Don't you realize that you only know what I let you know

And don't you realize that I could never let you know me

Even if I wanted to, because I don't really know myself

Don't you realize you don't KNOW ME?

*Don't you know
that what you knew I'd do
I didn't know I'd do
even after I did what I did
Like you knew I'd do it?*

*And don't you know
that what you figured I'd say
I didn't figure I'd say even after I said what I said
Like you figured I'd say it?*
DON'T YOU REALIZE
YOU DON'T KNOW ME?

DON'T YOU REALIZE

THAT YOU DON'T KNOW ME?
