

... How I feel affects other people!!!

moth.er (muTH'.er) n.

Yesterday someone tried to define you.
I laughed and told them you are unique.
I explained that you are at your strongest
Whenever you seem to be weak.

And that though you are my mother,
You are somebody's sister and friend.
You put on "new hats" spontaneously
You work magic again and again.

I helped them understand that your wisdom is pure...
that your touch is comforting...
that your voice is soothing...

Oh, I went on and on...
(I hope you don't mind)
See, I'll always be your biggest fan
For you'll always be one of a kind.
