How I Feel Affects Other People!!!

DECEMBER 1

Reminding "Seasoned Citizens" (and you) to continue to laugh, learn and love their lives...

YOU ARE ALLOWED TO TERMINATE YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH TOXIC FAMILY MEMBERS. YOU ARE ALLOWED TO WALK AWAY FROM PEOPLE WHO HURT YOU. YOU ARE ALLOWED TO BE ANGRY AND SELFISH AND UNFORGIVING AND YOU DON'T OWE ANYONE AN EXPLANATION FOR TAKING CARE OF YOU.

No, No, No.... Not opening with a negative message.

This is a prayerful reminder.

Many feel lonely or sad during the Holiday Season. And some dread a family situation that will remind them that they should feel lonely... when they're actually just alone.

OLD BOAT

Joe kept pretty much to himself. One day Joe rented out his old boat to a group of out-of-towners who sank it. Joe spent all day trying to salvage as much stuff as he could and was out of touch all that day and most of the evening. Unbeknownst to him, his brother John's wife died suddenly. When he got back on shore he went into town to pick up a few things at the grocery store. A kind old neighbor woman mistook him for John and said, "I'm so sorry for your loss. You must feel terrible."

Joe, thinking she was talking about his boat replied, "Hell no! Fact is I'm sort of glad to be rid of her. She was a rotten old thing from the beginning. Her bottom was all shriveled up and she smelled like dead old fish. She was always holding water. She had a bad crack in the back and a pretty big hole in the front too. Every time I used her, her hole got bigger and she leaked like crazy. I guess what finally finished her off was when I rented her out to those four guys looking for a good time. I warned them that she wasn't very good, and smelled bad. But they wanted her anyway. The darn fools tried to get in her all at once, and she split right up the middle!"

The old woman fainted ~ Unknown John (... or Joe!)

Daily Exercise Calms Emotions... Making Bodies Especially Resilient

You're not getting senile. You're exercising your right to forget

I was having trouble with my computer, so I called my 13-year-old son to help me. He clicked a couple of buttons and fixed it. As he was walking back to his room, I asked him what the problem was. He said, "It was an 'ID Ten T' issue."

Not wanting to sound stupid, but curious in case I had the same problem again, I asked him what an 'ID Ten T' was.

"Write it down," he said.

So I did: ID10T....

He never was my favorite child anyway.

A woman and her 12-year-old son were riding in a taxi in Detroit. It was raining and all the prostitutes were standing under awnings.

"Mom," said the boy, "what are all those women doing?"

"They're waiting for their husbands to get off work," she replied.

The taxi driver turns around and says, "Geez lady, why don't you tell him the truth? They're hookers, boy! They have sex with men for money."

The little boy's eyes get wide and he says, "Is that true Mom?"

His mother, glaring hard at the driver, answers "Yes."

After a few minutes the kid asks, "Mom, if those women have babies, what happens to them?"

She said, "Most of them become taxi drivers."

I replied, "That's what happened the last time I flew with you!"

I lost my job at the bank on my very first day. A woman asked me to check her balance, so I pushed her over.

OVER A BARREL

In the days before CPR a drowning victim would be placed face down over a barrel and the barrel would be rolled back and forth in an effort to empty the lungs of water. It was rarely effective. If you are over a barrel you are in deep trouble.

THE MOPED & FERRARI

An elderly man on a Moped, looking about 100 years old, pulls up next to a doctor at a streetlight. The old man looks over at the sleek shiny car and asks, 'What kind of car ya got there, sonny?'

The doctor replies, 'A Ferrari GTO. It cost half a million dollars!'

'That's a lot of money,' says the old man. 'Why does it cost so much?'

'Because this car can do up to 320 miles an hour!' states the doctor proudly.

The Moped driver asks, 'Mind if I take a look inside?' 'No problem,' replies the doctor.

So the old man pokes his head in the window and looks around. Then, sitting back on his Moped, the old man says, 'That's a pretty nice car, all right... but I'll stick with my Moped!'

Just then the light changes, so the doctor decides to show the old man just what his car can do. He floors it, and within 30 seconds the speedometer reads 160 mph. Suddenly he notices a dot in his rear-view mirror. It seems to be getting closer! He slows down to see what it could be and suddenly WHOOSHH... something whips by him going much faster!

'What on earth could be going faster than my Ferrari?' the doctor asks himself.

He presses harder on the accelerator and takes the Ferrari up to 250 mph. Then, up ahead of him, he sees that it's the old man on the Moped! Amazed that the Moped could pass his Ferrari, he gives it more gas and passes the Moped at 275 mph. And he's feeling pretty good until he looks in his mirror and sees the old man gaining on him AGAIN! Astounded by the speed of this old guy, he floors the gas pedal and takes the Ferrari all the way up to 320 mph. Not ten seconds later, he sees the Moped bearing down on him again! The Ferrari is flat out, and there's nothing he can do!

Suddenly, the Moped plows into the back of his Ferrari, demolishing the rear end. The doctor stops and jumps out and unbelievably the old man is still alive. He runs up to the banged-up old guy and says, 'I'm a doctor... is there anything I can do for you?'

The old man whispers, 'Unhook my suspenders from your side view mirror.'

The Golden Brick Road

Haven't you ever had to be stronger than you thought you could be?

Why not focus on something that makes you smile? Someone else will see your smile, and that might help them smile for the person who sees their smile. It might not make your problems go away, but they won't take you out. What you focus on, you ferment.

Sooner or later you stop chasing life and live it. There's a wonderful rhythm and pace to your existence, as well as a cycle.... In our younger days we strove to be involved in everything, trying hard to follow someone's lead toward our greatness. We challenged and dared ourselves to try new things and defy the odds. As we matured (at no particular age) we began to place value on different aspects of our lives, based on our experienced results from the involvement, greatness, challenges, dares and defiance. And we are even able to go back and thank those spokes on our cycle as early blessings toward a clearer picture of who we were to become, and what we had to do to get here. No regrets!

Don't look to be accepted.
Strive to remain exceptional.

I know you caught that I wrote "remain!" Too often we question our attire, manners, vocabulary, resume, views... giving someone else the power to determine our next step, instead of welcoming our next move. True progress is made when you step away from the 'rule.' And you don't always have to move forward. Sometimes stepping aside is another one of your best moves.

(Deliver Excellence, Creativity & Exciting Moments

Before Expecting Recognition)

There once was a bunch of tiny frogs who arranged a running competition. The goal was to reach the top of a very high tower. A big crowd had gathered around the tower to see the race and cheer on the contestants. The race began. Honestly, no one in crowd really believed that the tiny frogs would reach the top of the tower. You heard statements such as, "Oh, WAY too difficult!!" "They will NEVER make it to the top." or, "Not a chance that they will succeed. The tower is too high!"

The tiny frogs began collapsing. One by one... except for those who in a fresh tempo were climbing higher and higher. The crowd continued to yell, "It is too difficult!!! No one will make it!"

More tiny frogs got tired and gave up. But ONE continued higher and higher and higher. It wouldn't give up!

At the end everyone else had given up climbing the tower except for the one tiny frog who after a big effort was the only one who reached the top! THEN all of the other tiny frogs naturally wanted to know how this one frog managed to do it?

A contestant asked the tiny frog how the one who succeeded had found the strength to reach the goal? It turned out that the winner was DEAF!!!!

The wisdom of this story is:

Never listen to other people's tendencies to be negative or pessimistic... because they take your most wonderful dreams and wishes away from you: the ones you have in your heart! Always think of the power words have. Because everything you hear and read will affect your actions! Therefore: ALWAYS be POSITIVE!

And above all: Be DEAF when people tell YOU that YOU cannot fulfill YOUR dreams!

Always think: I can do this! ~ Unknown (... and still climbing!)

THANK A TEACHER IN YOUR PRAYERS TODAY!!!

After being interviewed by the school administration, the prospective teacher said:

"Let me see if I've got this right. You want me to go into that room with all those kids, correct their disruptive behavior, observe them for signs of abuse, monitor their dress habits, censor their T-shirt messages, and instill in them a love for learning.

"You want me to check their backpacks for weapons, wage war on drugs and sexually transmitted diseases, and raise their sense of selfesteem and personal pride.

"You want me to teach them patriotism and good citizenship, sportsmanship and fair play and how to register to vote, balance a checkbook, and apply for a job.

"You want me to check their heads for lice, recognize signs of antisocial behavior, and make sure that they all pass the final exams.

"You also want me to provide them with an equal education regardless of their handicaps, and communicate regularly with their parents in English, Spanish or any other language, by letter, telephone, newsletter, and report card.

"You want me to do all this with a piece of chalk, a blackboard, a bulletin board, a few books, a big smile*, and a starting salary that qualifies me for food stamps.

"You want me to do all this and then you tell me I CAN'T PRAY! Are you nuts?"

TOUGH LOVE VS. SPANKING

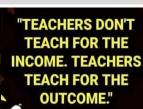

Most of America's populace thinks it very improper to spank children, so I have tried other methods to control our kids when they have one of "those moments." One that I found very effective is for me to just take the child for a car ride and talk. He or she usually calms down and stops misbehaving after our little car ride together. I've included the photo below of one of my sessions with our son in case you would like to use the technique.

HAPPY THIS YEAR!!!

I love you and I'll see you!!! Happy LIFE Moments!!!

HAPPY BIRTHDATE ANNIVERSARY (TO YOU)!

My mother always said, "You have one BirthDAY. Every year after that is the Anniversary...." Each year I change the greeting on

MY Anniversary. Here it is for those not listed on FB or LI. If you're on FB or LI with your DATE listed [Spoiler Alert] you'll receive this greeting: Celebrating you today is not unusual, yet it IS unavoidable. Under no circumstances are you to think you're only worthy of being celebrated one day on a manmade calendar. In fact ... should someone wish you a Happy Belated... tell them they're not late, you'll be this blessing all year.

FLASHBACK EXIT POEMS FROM MY PAST

In around 1975 my girlfriend's father bound this book of blank pages because he enjoyed the poetry I created for his daughter and she shared. I had almost forgotten about this book because the pages are handwritten and full (124). I'm so excited and warmed by how timeless some of the messages are and, more importantly, seeing/sharing my spiritual growth.

APOLOGIZING

If I could explain myself to you completely, there would be nothing left for me to talk about... Only statements to quote No questions to ask No facts to find Just actions to accept Simply reasons to realize No surprises to spring Because about me you would know ... Everything © 1978

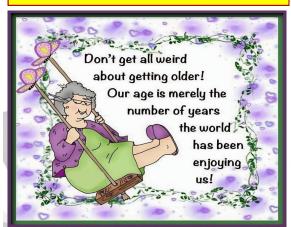

LEAH

While writing so much poetry I'd be ashamed if I left you out Cause being considerate, thankful and happy Is what Christmas is all about. How could I pass up the chance To reflect upon and realize The guidance, care and understanding You've provided free of charge. And so this poem is but a small token Of the thanks I give to you. This poem is but a small tribute To my mother who's heart is true. There's no great need for thanks here I'm just giving you what you deserve Have a Happy Christmas a Merry New Year And a long rewarding life Drenched with joy, love and cheer © 1976
